Sain Bainoo Mongolia,

My name is Steven Leonard Anthony Reynen.
I am a Christian seeking Political Asylum.

I can do honest work with my hands:

Drive a garbage truck. (If Canada left me alone, I'd be doing this, and singing hymns right now)

Act as a page in a library.

Run a Canadian Pizza and Beer Pub (as a Canadian expat refugee).

Do janitorial work.

Work as a farm hand.

All while moonlighting as an aspiring author (see reynen.ca for details).

I am fleeing state-backed religious persecution here in Canada.

I do not yet have the gift of prophecy.

I do have the gifts of faith, hope, and love (my favourite gift – the best one).

If the Canadian Government will permit me to go to your embassy, should you respond with an official letter/email indicating you are willing to accept me as a political asylum seeker, Dr. Tabitha Rogers says I will be discharged (assuming she is back from her vacation) and I can walk right over (she won't give me a taxi chit and my legs "are not painted on") with enough money saved for a plane ticket (should my debit card work).

Please confirm receipt of this message.

Sorry (Uuchlaari) for any inconvenience. I am Canadian after all.

Oh, I am also sincerely interested in the nomadic life.

Regards,

Steven Reynen

Hi Embassy of Mongolia to Canada,

I am hereby officially seeking political asylum from state-backed religious persecution here in Canada.

Would Mongolia grant me political asylum?

Details of my circumstances can be found on <https://reynen.ca>

Please acknowledge receipt of this message and write me back as soon as possible.

P.S. CCing some other parties.

Please write me back directly at this email address or at steven@reynen.ca

Or send me a physical letter in the mail (you might want a tracking number) at:
