Hi Emily and Brooke,

Dr. Rogers is currently abstaining from allowing me to go to the Ottawa Courthouse (although she indicated she may assign an orderly to take me there on a day pass as she does not want to further obstruct justice) because she says she has been instructed by you that you intend to inform me of an alternative way to get a fee waiver notarized despite the predicament I find myself in (I cannot conceive of one that exists).

I will wait patiently, but please know that if she doesn't let me go, and an alternative isn't presented by the 30 day cut off, with sufficient time for me to submit the required documents including the required fee waiver form, my appeal will have been blocked by her actions supported by your official legal counsel.

There is a reason fee waiver forms exist, and they are for my exact circumstance.

This would be a provable instance of obstruction of justice.

I am posting this publicly and including the management at WLG's Ottawa location in this email.

Please respond in a timely manner Emily and/or Brooke.

Regards,

Steven Reynen
